

2.2.5 'My top tips' worksheet

Your teachers need to know how they can support you. Use these boxes to let them know.

1. Do you like to talk about your military connection or do you find it difficult?
2. Do you choose to spend time with other children from military service families? Does it help you?
3. Would you like more opportunity to meet other children from military service families?
4. How could schools help when you move?
5. How do you feel when your parent is deployed? How could schools help and encourage you?
6. What does your school do that others should be doing?
7. One thing you should know about children from a military service family
